

Project Summary

Field

Due diligence process to reduce the technology risk for a major investment in a third party company

Customer

Medium size medical products company

Mandate

Evaluate feasibility and potential of technology base, intellectual property portfolio, quality management processes of third party company in relation to competitive activities

Challenges

Task comprises a multitude of sub-activities covering scientific as well as strategic and management aspects

Three weeks deadline to be met for the complete due diligence process

Contributions

Critical assessment of the core technology in respect to current scientific state of the art, medical studies, competition, intellectual property and management processes:

- Company technology vs. international state of the art
- Overall product and development strategy
- Study planning and execution
- Management of collaboration projects
- Added value compared to competing approaches and products
- IP portfolio and strategy
- Quality management processes

Results / Consequences

Report provided as additional technical decision basis for investment